ACNB BANK SHARES RESULTS OF HELPING HANDS INITIATIVE

GETTYSBURG, PA, July 14, 2020 --- ACNB Bank launched a special initiative in April of this year--- ACNB Helping Hands---that serves to reinforce the Bank's ongoing commitment to community during the challenging times when the COVID-19 pandemic dramatically impacted local businesses and residents. This program, funded by both ACNB Bank and its affiliated employees, provided nearly 6,000 meals prepared by 16 restaurant and catering businesses that are customers which were then distributed during recent months to people in need through 16 local community organizations across the Bank's southcentral Pennsylvania and northern Maryland footprint.

"Staff members and board members affiliated with ACNB Bank personally contributed $13,250 to this effort. Combined with ACNB Bank's commitment of $40,000 in funding, along with the restaurant and catering partners preparing the meals, we all came together under difficult and demanding circumstances for each other and for the benefit of those in need within our local communities," said James P. Helt, ACNB Bank President & Chief Executive Officer.

"The restaurant and catering partners were excited to participate in ACNB Helping Hands at a time when their business was focused primarily on carry-out orders. The local residents served through the

In Carroll County, Maryland, NWSB Bank, a division of ACNB Bank, worked with four restaurant and catering customers---Bess and Ben’s Country Kitchen Restaurant in Taneytown, Maggie’s Restaurant in Westminster, The Buttersburg Inn in Union Bridge, and The Food Chick in Westminster---to collectively provide 1,271 meals to five organizations serving residents throughout Carroll County including the Boys and Girls Club of Westminster, Caring Carroll, Inc., Human Services Programs of Carroll County, Inc., Salvation Army of Carroll County, and Together We Own It.
